Moffat County Fair BBQ Cook-Off

Saturday, August 6, 2011

Sign up Deadline is Saturday, August 6, 2011

1. This BBQ Cook-off is for meat only. Classes will be for Open entries and Business entries.
2. There will be no fee for entry.
3. Registration forms are available online at moffatcountyfair.com or at the extension office. Teams may register on Saturday, August 6, but meat must be cooked and ready to serve at 4:45 p.m. Competitors must be at least 16 years of age.
4. Check in will be at (12:00 p.m.) August 6, at the Moffat County Fairgrounds Pavilion.
5. At this time, each team will be assigned a confidential number and a space to set up. If this time does not allow for adequate cooking time, special arrangements can be made prior.
6. Vehicles will be allowed to unload near the pavilion but must be parked elsewhere.
7. Teams are required to provide the following:
 - Your own heat source (grill, smoker, etc. Absolutely NO pits will be dug.)
 - At least 30 pounds of meat. Meat cannot be precooked. It must be cooked on site. No live animals.
 - Fire extinguisher, recommended.
 - Coolers, cooking utensils, water, trays, etc.
 - 1 table to serve from.
 - Decorations, if desired.
8. Cooking can only take place in designated space. No campers will be allowed.
9. A People's Choice will be awarded.
10. Public serving will begin at 5:00 p.m. The public will pay for a plate and receive one voting ticket per plate. The ticket can be placed in the box representing the team they choose. Public voting will end at 6:30 p.m.
11. Winners will be announced following the cook off. Serving will take place until 6:30 p.m. or until a team runs out of their etree.
12. Teams must clean up their space by 7:30 p.m.
13. No pets during competition.

Most importantly, this competition is for fun. We expect teams to have a good time and display good sportsmanship while exhibiting responsible behavior. This is our 5th annual cook off. It is a growing success.
